UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
MIDLAND - ODESSA DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, V. JUSTIN PHILLIP ALEXANDER Defendant.	CRIMINAL NO. MO: 10-CR-130-01

MOTION TO REVOKE PROBATION/SUPERVISED RELEASE

The United States Attorney, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3583(e)(3), moves the court to revoke the term of probation/supervised release imposed against the Defendant and to require the Defendant to serve in prison all of the term of probation/supervised release authorized by statute for the offense that resulted in such term of probation/supervised release without credit for the term previously served on supervision.

The Government adopts the facts as stated in the Petition for Warrant or Summons for Offender Under Supervision filed on October 6, 2016, in this cause regarding the defendant's original sentence. Further, the Government adopts the allegations of noncompliance as stated in the filed petition.

Wherefore, premises considered, the United States Attorney prays that, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3583 (e) (3), the court will revoke the term of probation/supervised release imposed against the Defendant and require the Defendant to serve in prison all of the term of probation/supervised release authorized by statute for the offense that resulted in such term of probation/supervised release without credit for the term previously served on supervision.
